PayPal and my website:

I now have PayPal buttons on my website and orders can be paid with credit cards through my website now without having to use Etsy. I still have my shop on Etsy and will continue to do so; however for those who don't care to use Etsy, now those customers will have another option for paying online.

Follow me: visit my blog and while you are there check the right sidebar to sign up to follow and scroll down to find all the many wonderful websites that I enjoy that I share with you all.

Read the articles and I hope you too will enjoy handcrafting and sustainable living chatter.

Highlights from May:

Rag Rug Loom report:

I continue to learn so much making my own looms and experimenting on my own making my own ag yarn. I have been making tee shirt yarn for my rag rugs. I made a pictorial to show how to cut a tee shirt and make tee shirt yarn. See that here:

You will notice the antique boat shuttle in the pictures in the rag rug album. I purchased it from Margery Erickson, see her shop at <http://www.etsy.com/shop/maverickson>

You will also notice handcrafted swords in some of the pictures. Notice the 36" poplar wood sword with light stain was handcrafted by Rick of www.etsy.com/shop/HandCraftersofElPaso made for me. I made from the smaller, thinner swords from old wooden yardsticks, I stained those with dark wood stain.

I donated a project bag

(see the article on my blog with pictures, also here on Flickr
