Maggie's Corner is changing... say farewell to the FL CORP

October 22, 2013 at 11:15am

Maggie's Corner Nonprofit Corporation (MCNC) did not succeed in meeting our organizational plan which included registration to obtain the IRS 501-c-3 status within 2 years of forming the corporation, because the registration fee was not obtainable from the corporation's net proceeds. Our organization is not required to be a corporation, so we allowed the Florida Department of State Division of Corporations to dissolve the Corporation as of end of September 2013.

Maggie is still committed to RECYCLING  UPCYCLING, and living a sustainable lifestyle, she will continue to pursue artisan endeavors through a local Artisan's Guild being developed.

Stay tuned for more....

Maggie will be teaching a class at Ever'man Community Center on Garden Street in Pensacola, Florida on Saturday November 16, from Noon to 2pm

"Don't Throw That Away: an introduction to the 2014 Upcycling Project Series"
